LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

On May 24, 1984, Governor Dick Thornburgh of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania officially granted University status to La Salle College.

The name La Salle University may take some time getting used to, but the institution will continue to serve the community as it has since its founding in 1863.

"As our destiny is in our own hands, there is every reason to be confident that we can retain and enhance our emphasis on the excellent teaching of undergraduates and on the relaxed accessibility of faculty and administrators to students," said La Salle President Brother Patrick Ellis. "Class size, activities, availability of computers and the like should not change except for the better."

Founded by the Brothers of Christian schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia is now a 78-acre, 36-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 212 with degree programs offered in Arts, Science and Business. With a student-faculty ratio of 16-to-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

Among the major buildings on campus are the David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney

Hall classroom building; and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 200 public and private schools in 30 states, and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1100 students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body goes on to graduate study, with more than 1000 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 56 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only one other institution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 6% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (58th of 943 colleges and universities).

"I am certain that as a university, La Salle not only will continue, but expand, that tradition of excellence," said Governor Thornburgh on granting La Salle university status.

It is a tradition that is being renewed by La Salle University.

BROTHER F. PATRICK ELLIS

PRESIDENT

F.S.C., PhD

Brother Patrick Ellis was installed as President of La Salle College on January 1, 1977 and now has the honor of leading La Salle into a new era as a University.

A member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools since 1946, Brother Patrick first joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as a professor of English. He has been associated with La Salle since that time, except for a term as principal of La Salle High School in Miami, FL from 1962-1964. He returned to Philadelphia in 1964, and was the Director of La Salle's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named Director of Development and Vice President of the Corporation. A native of Baltimore, MD, Brother Patrick graduated from Calvert Hall College High School in 1946, received an A.B. degree in English from Catholic University in 1951, and earned his master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

He first was assigned to the Philadelphia area in 1951 when he joined the staff at West Catholic High School for Boys. In the 10 years he was there he served as Chairman of the English Department and as Guidance Director.

Active in numerous national and local organizations, Brother Patrick is a member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, St. Mary's College (Winona, MN), and St. John's College High School (Washington, DC).

He is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities; President of the James A. Finnegan Foundation, which fosters state government internships; and Chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Corporation, a co-operative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle.

Brother Patrick is also vice-chairman of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities, and on the boards of the American Council on Education; the Greater Philadelphia First Corporation; Philadelphia's Urban Affairs Partnership; Friends of Independence Hall; the Police Athletic League; and the Salvation Army. He has been named to a second three-year term on the Philadelphia Diocesan Council of Managers.

Brother Patrick has authored numerous articles in educational publications, and conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1961 and 1965. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

Brother Patrick has been an avid devotee of the arts all his life, and has performed in several productions over the years, the last being "Knickerbocker Holiday" at La Salle's Summer Theater in 1971. His sketches of local scenes frequently adorn his personal notes and Christmas cards. He has sung the National Anthem at a number of La Salle basketball games, and before four Philadelphia Phillies games at Veterans Stadium.

BOB MULLEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Bob Mullen, a successful coach and administrator at two colleges, was named La Salle's fourth Director of Athletics on July 28, 1986.

Mullen, 47, is a graduate of Northern Illinois University, with a Bachelor of Science degree in History and a Master of Science degree in Guidance and Counseling. His first head coaching positions were at Galena (IL) High School, where his basketball teams had a 189-59 overall record and won seven straight conference championships. He was also Head Coach of football (18-6 record), golf (three conference titles), cross country and baseball.

In 1974 he was appointed Director of Athletics and Head Coach of basketball and golf at Loras College in Dubuque, IA. Both the basketball and golf teams reached NAIA finals under his leadership. He also instituted a Division III football program at Loras, and aided in planning and development of both a civic arena and intramural center.

In 1981 Mullen was named Director of Athletics at the University of Southern Colorado in Pueblo, CO. Among his accomplishments at USC were: European tours for both the men's and women's basketball teams; promotion of an NAIA first-round football playoff game which set a national record for attendance; and initiation of a wrestling program which ranked second in the NAIA after only three years as a varsity sport. He also served as interim Director of Alumni Affairs for one year due to his success in that area in relation to the Athletic Department.

As a college coach, Mullen received NAIA District Coach-of-the-Year laurels for both basketball and golf while at Loras College, and had basketball teams visit and compete in 10 foreign countries.

An active administrator on the national level, Mullen is currently a voting delegate to the United States Olympic Committee-United States Sports Council; was President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association; and is a Division II College Representative to the Executive Committee of NACDA.

Mullen and his wife Marcia have four children: daughter Sherri is married with two daughters and lives in Dubuque, IA; son Scott is a junior at Drake University; daughter Kelly is a freshman at La Salle; and son Rob is a sophomore at Springfield High School.

Bob Mullen succeeds Bill Bradshaw as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation, and is the fourth man to hold that position since World War II. Jim Henry was AD from 1941-1969. Jack Conboy followed him and remained in the position until 1977, when he was succeeded by Bradshaw.

THE COACHING STAFF

JOHN MILLER HEAD COACH

John Miller, former high school boys coach, begins his rookie season at the helm of the defending Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Tournament champion La Salle women's basketball team.

A native of Reading, PA, Miller received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from St. Charles Seminary in 1969, and a Masters degree in Guidance and Counseling from Villanova University in 1976. He has taught at Philadelphia's John W. Hallahan Catholic High School for 11 years, and also is Head Coach of the softball team there.

Miller began his coaching career as an assistant coach to men's coach Bill "Speedy" Morris at Roman Catholic High School in 1971, and became Head Coach at Archbishop Ryan High School prior to the 1976-77 season. His Ryan teams played in the Catholic League playoffs four times, and were Northern Division Playoff Champions in 1979 when Miller was recognized as Catholic League Coach-of-the-Year by his peers. His 1978-79 team also set school records with 28 victories and a 16-game winning streak during the season.

He resigned from Archbishop Ryan following the 1984-85 season, and was Head Coach at Monsignor Bonner High School for the 1985-86 season, compiling a 20-8 record.

GINA TOBIN ASSISTANT

Gina Tobin begins her second season as a member of the La Salle coaching staff. Tobin is not an unfamiliar face to the Explorers. A 1985 graduate and Management Major, Gina is a former La Salle standout. She captained the 1984-85 team, and was a member of the 1982-83 East Coast Conference Championship team. Her 923 career points put her in seventh place on La Salle's all-time scoring list, while 342 career assists place her second all-time. Tobin is a resident of Northeast Philadelphia.

KATHY HEMSLEY ASSISTANT

A 1978 graduate of St. Joseph's, Kathy Hemsley is in her seventh season as an assistant on the La Salle staff. A native of the Philadelphia area, she was an assistant women's basketball coach at Swarthmore, a graduate assistant coach at Temple, and an assistant at Bishop McDevitt High School before joining the La Salle staff. In addition to her position with La Salle women's basketball, Kathy is a certified physical therapist employed in physical therapy at the Bryn Mawr Rehabilitation Center in Malvern, PA. Kathy is also a certified athletic trainer, and has worked in that capacity with several area high schools and colleges, including La Salle. Hemsley is a resident of Glenside, PA.

FRANK NUNAN ASSISTANT

Frank Nunan is the newest member of the La Salle coaching staff. A 1981 graduate of Lycoming where he majored in History/Education, Nunan joins the La Salle staff following two years as an assistant varsity coach at Monsignor Bonner, assisting John Miller last season. Prior to that Frank was an assistant varsity coach at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, NJ for two seasons, and a junior varsity coach at Lycoming in 1980 and 1981. He played guard for Lycoming in 1978 and 1979. An All-Catholic selection at Monsignor Bonner in 1977, Nunan captained his senior team. Frank is an insurance representative for PSFS in Philadelphia. He resides in Upper Darby with his wife Mary Ellen, and son Frankie.
